John G. Koeltl, U.S.D.J.

Re: Democratic National Committee v. The Russian Federation (WikiLeaks)
18 Civ. 3501 (JGK)

Dear Judge Koeltl:

This letter is submitted on behalf of defendant Wikileaks, which I represent in the above-entitled case. In its October 3, 2018, Scheduling Order (ECF Dkt # 181), the Court allotted 15 pages to each defendant beyond the 50 pages allotted for a joint defendants' memo of law in support of a motion to dismiss the Amended Complaint. It is respectfully requested that the Court, as it has done with respect to certain other defendants, allot Wikileaks 25 pages for its individual memo of law. Wikileaks is in many respects in a unique position among the defendants legally and factually, and as a result will be raising issues that the joint memo of law will not be covering. I have spoken to Joseph M. Sellers, Esq., of Cohen Millstein Sellers & Toll, PLLC, counsel for Plaintiffs, and he has informed me that Plaintiffs consent to this application.

Accordingly, it is respectfully requested that the Court allow Wikileaks to file a 25-page separate memo of law in support of its motion to dismiss.

Respectfully submitted,

Joshua L. Dratel
